PEACE CORPS VOLUNTEERS HAVE SHAPED THE WORLD...

46 years ago, a young high school student named Chris Dodd stood on the steps of our nation's Capitol and heard President John Kennedy call upon Americans to serve their country.

Like you, he heeded that call. Like you, Chris Dodd saw first hand what was possible when America worked to build peace and prosperity.

★ A YOUNG AMERICAN ANSWERING HIS PRESIDENT'S CALL

As a young college graduate, Chris Dodd heeded President Kennedy's call to be part of something greater than himself by joining the Peace Corps. Beginning in 1966, Dodd served two years in the rural communities of the Dominican Republic building a school and a maternity clinic.

★ AN AMERICA THAT LEADS

While serving in the Peace Corps, Chris Dodd saw what the world could achieve when America leads with its highest ideals – justice, opportunity and hope. Now, in these demanding and dangerous times, the world needs America to lead once again and answer the call to service.

★ ANSWERING A NEW CALL TO SERVICE

Chris Dodd knows that to meet today's challenges at home and abroad we must fully engage the talents of all Americans. That's why Chris Dodd is working on a national universal service plan that once again asks all of us to be part of something larger than ourselves. Chris Dodd needs your voice and vision to make this plan the best it can be.

Join Chris Dodd in Answering a New Call to Service

As Peace Corps volunteers, you served our nation – and the world. Now it's time to help shape a new call to service.

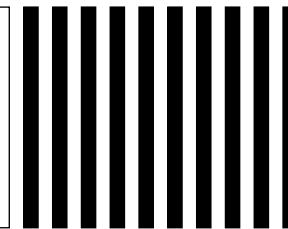

Please join Chris Dodd for a preview of his new national service plan in a National Town Hall meeting via the Internet, on Wednesday, June 20 at 5:00 PM (EST).

Learn more at chrisdodd.com and share your stories of service, your ideas and your pictures with other Retired Peace Corps Volunteers.
