OUR DAILY BREAD.

VOTE NO ON THE CITY OF TOPEKA QUESTION...

Every Topekan Deserves a Chance to Earn Their Daily Bread.

Our community values hard work. And we believe that every person deserves a fair chance to earn a living. That's why Topekans are joining together to stop a measure that would make Topeka the only city in America to legalize discrimination in the workplace.

On March 1st, Topekans will vote on a measure that would make it legal for employers to fire gays and lesbians or deny them employment, simply for being gay. And it would make this workplace discrimination legal for at least 10 years.

The right to earn a living is a basic right for every person. Please help honor our community values and fight discrimination by voting NO on the City of Topeka Question.

“No one is asking for special rights—just the right to earn a living. Please vote NO on March 1st on the City of Topeka Question.”

–Annette Billings
Registered Nurse

On March 1st, vote NO on the City of Topeka Question.
DISCRIMINATION IS ALWAYS WRONG.
